COMMON QUESTIONS

Frequently asked questions

How do I avoid the $12 monthly service charge?

Meet any one of three conditions: receive $500 or more in direct deposits per statement cycle; maintain a $1,500 average daily balance; or be the primary owner and age 17–24. The fee is automatically waived any cycle you meet a qualifier.

What happens if I overdraw my account?

If the overdraft is $50 or less and your account is returned to a positive balance by the end of the next business day, no fee is charged — this is SafetyNet. Larger overdrafts may be returned or, if you opt into Overdraft Courtesy, paid at Cumulus's discretion. Cumulus does not charge NSF fees on returned items.

Can I use ATMs outside the Allpoint network?

Yes. Out-of-network ATM withdrawals incur a $3 Cumulus fee plus any surcharge assessed by the ATM owner. Use the locator in the Cumulus app to find fee-free Allpoint ATMs.

Is mobile check deposit free?

Yes. Deposit checks from your phone at no charge up to $5,000 per day and $10,000 per month. Funds are typically available the next business day, subject to Regulation CC.

Does the debit card work abroad?

Yes. The Cumulus Debit Mastercard® is accepted at millions of merchants and ATMs worldwide. Foreign-currency transactions incur a 3% international service assessment.
