COMMON QUESTIONS

Frequently asked questions

Is the $95 annual fee worth it?

For travelers who take at least two flights or two hotel stays per year, the card typically pays for itself through the $300 annual travel credit alone, before counting points and lounge access. The first year's fee is waived, giving you a full year to evaluate the benefits.

How do points transfer partners work?

You can transfer Cumulus points 1:1 to 14 airline and hotel partners — see the current list in the Cumulus app. Partner redemptions (especially premium-cabin international flights and top-tier hotel nights) often deliver value above 2 cents per point, well above the statement-credit baseline of 1 cent.

When does the 60,000-point welcome bonus post?

After you make $4,000 or more in purchases during the first 90 days, the bonus will post to your Cumulus Travel Points account on the next statement following the qualifying spend.

Does the $300 travel credit reset?

Yes. The travel credit resets at the start of each cardmember anniversary year. Unused credits do not roll over. Qualifying travel purchases are credited automatically.

How many Priority Pass visits do I get?

4 complimentary visits to Priority Pass lounges per membership year. Additional visits are billed at the member rate directly to your card. Priority Pass enrollment is initiated in the Cumulus app and takes 5–7 business days to activate.

Is there foreign transaction fee?

No. The Cumulus Travel Points Card charges 0.00% foreign transaction fees. Purchases abroad are converted at the Mastercard interbank rate.
