RELATIONSHIP FRAME

Customer context

Use this to prepare for a formal annual review where the advisor needs a consistent story across goals, life events, and service follow-up.

Wealth Annual Review is designed for wealth household and advisor team use during the annual review cycle motion. The document should orient the owner, clarify the current relationship frame, and convert scattered signals into a practical plan that can be reviewed before customer contact.

The core content emphasizes goal progress, household changes, relationship opportunities. These areas are intentionally operational: they help the lead advisor understand what is known, what still needs validation, and which follow-up steps should be assigned before the relationship moves forward.

The document is not an automated decision record. It is a generated working draft that should be checked against the system of record, then refined by the banker, advisor, service specialist, or implementation owner who is accountable for the relationship.

Working posture	Use this as a content-heavy planning document. It is meant to collect context, evidence, actions, and controls in one place before the owner decides what should become customer-facing language.

RECOMMENDED WORKFLOW

Action plan

Timing	Action	Owner
Pre-meeting	Validate goals, household members, and open service items.	Advisor associate
Meeting	Review changes, confirm decisions, and record unresolved questions.	Lead advisor
Post-meeting	Create tasks, update CRM notes, and schedule next review.	Advisor team

Operating notes

Pre-meeting: Advisor associate should validate goals, household members, and open service items. The owner should record the outcome in the CRM activity timeline and identify any dependency that blocks the next step.

Meeting: Lead advisor should review changes, confirm decisions, and record unresolved questions. The owner should record the outcome in the CRM activity timeline and identify any dependency that blocks the next step.

Post-meeting: Advisor team should create tasks, update CRM notes, and schedule next review. The owner should record the outcome in the CRM activity timeline and identify any dependency that blocks the next step.

REVIEW BEFORE USE

Controls

- Performance, tax, and legal topics require approved source systems and licensed review.
- Do not send generated review language until the advisor validates it.
- Document all decisions in the official CRM record after the meeting.

Review checklist

Check	Required review
Data freshness	Confirm the data was refreshed recently enough for the customer workflow.
Sensitive information	Mask identifiers, credentials, account numbers, and private notes.
Human approval	Route customer-facing excerpts through the owner and approved template process.
CRM update	Log decisions, declined actions, follow-up tasks, and unresolved questions.
